

Rome: World Cultures Through Time (Primary Source Readers)

Even though the Roman Empire ended in A.D. 476, its legacy still lives on today. Julius Caesar, gladiators, aqueducts, and The Colosseum are just a few of the topics discussed in this incredible book that uses vibrant, beautiful photos and intriguing facts to teach readers about the Roman Empire. Featuring a glossary, index, and easy to read text, this book will have children both engaged and fascinated as they learn what a big impact the Romans had on the past and on our lives today.
