

The Beach Club Begins: The Big Dance

In this first book of The Beach Club series, the five main characters and junior lifeguards form their own club and plan their first big social event, a dance. As they plan the beach bash, the girls learn a lot about friendship, love, and even a little about themselves in the process. After reading the book, readers can become Beach Club members and receive free newsletters and club mailings. Readers may also choose to become honorary members and Beach Club officers. Honorary members will receive an official Beach Club lifesaver charm. At the end of the book, readers will find an invitation and step-by-step instructions to host their own Beach Club bash!
