

Sydney (World Cities)

Sydney is one of the world's great cities, with its coastline, sprawling suburbs and seaside lifestyle. It is a city of great natural beauty with its bays, parks and golden Pacific beaches. This book describes Sydney as full of life and variety, displayed in its festivals, shows, shops and markets. It looks at the events and people that shaped the city, its buildings and its way of life, and is one of a series which uncovers the unique character of major cities around the globe.
