

Play (Baby Unplugged)

Wash, eat, tie my shoe. So much to share, so much to do. Roll a ball across the floor. Build a box house with a door ... From books and blocks to pets and boxes, a child's desire to play, explore, and connect is an innate and educational impulse. From the award-winning Baby Unplugged series by pediatrician and child development expert Dr. John Hutton, this book emphasizes screen-free, "unplugged" play with multi-sensory everyday objects—no screens, batteries, or WiFi required.
