

The Great Receiver

Critically acclaimed author Carters tale of escape and harrowing adventure will have even the most reluctant reader tearing through the pages. Joey Eastland thinks of himself as the player--no gridiron is safe from him. Hes the man, hes the beast, hes the great receiver. Pigskin flies toward him; the opposing teams defense flies from him. So why is his real position that of chief water boy? All that changes when a desperate coach notices that Joey can make some pretty impressive catches while cleaning up the equipment and gives him his first big break--almost overnight the nobody water boy and a student is a player not just on the team but in Lakeland Highs social network.
