

Chicken Sunday

After being initiated into a neighbors family by a solemn backyard ceremony, a young Russian American girl and her African American brothers determine to buy their grandma Eula a beautiful Easter hat. But their good intentions are misunderstood, until they discover just the right way to pay for the hat that Eulas had her eye on. A loving family story woven from the authors childhood. Polacco has outdone herself with these joyful, energetic illustrations, her vibrant colors even richer and more intense than usual, while authentic details enhance the interest. A unique piece of Americana. --Kirkus Reviews, pointer review
 In this moving picture book, the hatred sometimes engendered by racial and religious differences is overpowered by the love of people who recognize their common humanity. --Booklist, starred, boxed review
 The text conveys a tremendous pride of heritage as it brims with rich images from her characters African American and Russian Jewish cultures--A tribute to the strength of all family bonds. --Publishers Weekly, starred review
