

Imitate the Tiger

Chris Serbo loves to play football. I've played football so many years, its instinct to me... . I know the rules and I know the chaos... . There is nothing more satisfying than hitting someone with all your force... . When all else fails, I know how to play football. But Chris Serbo has some problems--and one of them is that he drinks to hide from the other problems. In this powerful story of a high school senior trying to find some hope and meaning in his life, author Jan Cheripko gives us a look at the personal struggles of Chris Serbo as he battles against those trying most to help him: his aunt, his coach, his history teacher, his friends, and even a few enemies.
