

Snakespeare: A Literary Lizard Adventure (Literary Lizard Adventures) (Volume 2)

An honest tale speeds best, being plainly told, writes Shakespeare in his play, King Richard III. This is the simple tale of a snake and a lizard, both afraid that the other will see where they come up short. In the end, words mend and build bridges for both of them. The second book in the Literary Lizard Adventure series, this story introduces young readers to literature and acceptance of each other and themselves.
